

O-24

O-35

PROFILE OF GREATNESS—A comparison of all profile photographs.

Left: Two 1860 beardless profiles used as models for campaign medals. Below: The two bearded profiles at left were taken in Springfield in 1861; those at right were shot in 1862 at Washington, D. C., and at Antietam, Maryland.

Opposite page—Above, at left and center: The most famous profiles, 1864. Above, right: An 1863 profile. Below, at left and center: Profiles taken in the shade of McClellan's tent at Antietam, 1862. Below, right: Detail enlargement of outdoor photograph, taken in 1862.

O-44

O-45

O-61

O-62