

O-69

TAKEN AT BRADY'S,
April 17, 1863

O-75

TAKEN BY GARDNER,
August 9, 1863

OUR TALLEST PRESIDENT—STANDING INDOORS. “When I get all the kinks out,” said Lincoln to Humphrey W. Carr of New Jersey, “I am six feet four inches.” But according to the measurement taken by artist Frank Carpenter, the President stood six feet, three and three-fourths inches in his stocking feet.