

Ostendorf collection Detail O-81

LINCOLN IS ABOUT TO DELIVER ten short sentences which will immortalize the Battle of Gettysburg. In the center of this unretouched enlargement the President stands hatless, head slightly bowed, with a small portion of his chin and beard obscured by a soldier's hat. At his left is Major General Robert C. Schenck. Edward Everett is at the far right, his face blurred, with hand on hip.