

Courtesy Burton N. Gates and Judge Carl E. Wahlstrom

Ostendorf collection

MRS. LINCOLN WITH A GROUP OF INDIANS who had come to Washington to visit the President. The First Lady stands at the extreme right, and in the rear center is Lincoln's private secretary, John G. Nicolay. For comparison, Mrs. Lincoln and John G. Nicolay are shown (opposite) in similar poses. A previously unpublished stereograph (right half) taken by Brady in 1862.

JOHN G. NICOLAY

Photo by Brady, Washington, D. C.

Ostendorf collection

MRS. LINCOLN, IN BONNET

Photo by Preston Butler, Springfield, 1861